

2020 JHS UTEC Graduated Scholars

JHS Scholars who completed the training in 2020: The list below gives the status of the JHS scholars who completed their training in May of 2020.

Name	Post Graduate Plans
Kadriana Armstrong	Plans to attend graduate school to obtain Master of Public Health and enter medical school upon completion of graduate school. Plans to be a High Risk OBGYN and specialize in Diseases of the Female Reproductive System.
Jazmine Baylor	Will be attending Morehouse School of Medicine Master of Science in Medical Sciences Program.
Justin Coleman	Will be attending Brown University Master of Public Health Program in Fall of 2021.
Caleb Cooper	If not accepted to medical school, plans to apply to post-baccalaureate programs.
Justin Giles	Plans to take a year to study for the MCAT and apply for medical schools.
Samuel Graves	Will be looking for employment in Computer Science.
Akire' Harris	Will be attending Morehouse School of Medicine.
Alexandria Kessee	Will be attending Belhaven University to obtain a Master of Arts in Teaching.
Faren White	Will be attending Meharry Medical College Health Science Program.
Hasting Williams	Will be attending the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Dental Medicine in Buffalo, NY.
Jamease Williams	Will be participating in the Mississippi Teacher Corp Program at University of Mississippi. Will be teaching Biology in the Jackson Public School District while earning a Master of Arts in Teaching.